

SRI P.K. SRINIVASAN

Sri P.K. Srinivasan was born on October, 10th 1924 to Sri P.V. Krishnaswamy Iyengar and Smt. Vedavalli at Mylapore, Madras.

After studying upto S.S.L.C. in Mylapore P.S.High School, he did his Intermediate and B.Sc. Physics in Pachaiappa's College, Madras.

He joined Post & Telegraph service as Repeater Station Assistant, held the posts of DET, SDOP and retired as Asst. General Manager, Madras Telephones in 1982.

He was a Trustee in Sri Vedantha Desikar Devasthanam Sriniasa Perumal Temple for one term. Apart from Tamil, Sanskrit and English, he learnt Telegu, Hindi and Malayalam.

He was fond of Carnatic Music and learnt vocal and violin. While in service, he developed his skill in theory part of both Carnatic music and Bharathanatyam. Leading personalities like Sri Dhananjayan, Mrs Chitra Visweswaran consulted him to clarify their doubts and enriched their knowledge.

He has written several articles on music in the magazines of Shanmugha of Bombay and Saptagiri of Tirumalai Tirupathi Devasthanam. Attracted by the richness of Sri Sundapalayam Ramabadra Kavi's works, he wanted to publish all his works.

He died in 1998 without seeing his ambition fulfilled. May his soul bless me from Heaven.

Prof. K. SAMPATH
Publisher

सुदर्शन मङ्गळम्
(PKS)

गीतं – जयति जयति
(PKS)

पीतांबरधरस्मग्वी
केयूरादि सुभूषितः ।
श्री चक्रराजो भगवान्
नित्यं तनोतु मङ्गळम् ॥
वासवादि सुपूज्याय
सर्वाभीष्ट प्रदायिने ।
दानव कुल कालाय
सहस्राय मङ्गळम् ॥

जयति जयति संस्कृत भाषा मम भाषा
अति सुलभा अति मधुरा नहि नहि कठिना ।
जयति । जयति । जयति ॥
१. सकलभाषा जननी श्रुतिमनस्सुरंजनी
बहुविध सुखदायिनी विविध तोषकारिणी ।
(जयति)
२. समस्त ज्ञान गुटिका शास्त्र काव्य पेटिका
बहुळ भाग्य वाटिका-सरसकेळितारिका ।
(जयति)

